

Appendix Two- Josh's* writing survey

|                                                    |                                                                                       |                                                                                       |                                                                                       |
|----------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| How much do you like to write?                     |    | *  |    |
| How well do you write?                             | *  |    |    |
| How much do you like writing at school?            |    | *  |    |
| How much do you like writing at home?              |    |    | *  |
| How much would you like someone to help you write? | *  |    |    |

Do you write? What do you like to write?

I write about cars, my name, I write about horsies and calves, I write stories.

What kind of stories do you like to write? What is the best story you've written?

All about Pinocchio, the best story- about dinosaurs,

Who do you know who is a good writer? Tell me about this.

Nanny; because she knows how to read

What do you do when you can't spell a word?

It's painful when I don't know how to spell a word, I ask someone to help.

How do you know what to write about?

Read books, because they're cool.

Who writes in your family? What do they like to write?

Daddy, he writes about motorbikes.

Why do people write?

Because they like to